Czech Heritage Club

Preserve the Past for the Future

The Czech Heritage Club needs your help, or maybe we should say that the mural of band members on the Edward Jones building at 122 Main St. W., in New Prague needs your help? The mural is badly deterating every day and needs a long overdue refresh!

Current mural

The Czech Heritage Club has taken on the task of collecting funds to make this project happen. We have local painter, Nick Slavik Painting, to do the removal, clean up and apply a fresh new undercoat.
Then artist, Greg Preslicka will draw and refurbish the mural. Afterwards a seal coat will be applied to preserve the new mural for many years to come.

The total project estimate is approximately $29,000

We have received a starter grant from the Czech Republic for roughly 30% of the project, but need your help to obtain the remaining 70% by the end of year to utilize the grant monies already received. We will be putting a sign with donations received towards our goal in the window of the building.
